Absent at $40 a day

We sort of felt that $30 per day was pretty good pay for our representatives in the Georgia General Assembly, even with inflation with us.

Then when our representatives raised their pay to $40 per day, while on an "economy hayride," we felt uneasy about the sincerity of their objectives.

Then when it was reported that on Friday of last week attendance in the House was so poor that Speaker George Smith had to lecture members on absenteeism, we became concerned. Three times that day he tried to round up enough representatives for the 103-vote minimum required for enacting general bills. Ninety was the most he could muster.

It is only fair that our elected representatives should devote their full time to the business of state for which their constituents elected them.

So, it seems to us that those representatives who fail to attend legislative sessions are letting the people down. We have the right to expect them to be present when the House or Senate leadership schedules a normal business day.

And in the light of our paying them $40 per day we have the perfect right to demand that they report for work every day of the session, except in instances which are legitimate reasons for being absent.

And in fairness to our Bulloch County representatives, though they were not present that Friday, they both have real and legitimate reasons for not being present. We add this to let our people know that our representatives are keenly aware of their responsibilities.

A fine Homecoming

The people of Statesboro love a parade. And the parade put on by the students of Georgia Teachers College to celebrate their 1959 Homecoming was one to enjoy.

It takes a lot of time, effort, and ingenuity to make up floats pretty enough to put in a parade. And the ones in the parade last Saturday were deserving of praise.

And when beauty is added to a parade there is additional interest and the 1959 Homecoming parade had beauty to spare. "Miss GTC of 1959" was a "living doll" as one observer put it.

The annual Homecoming events at our college are something the community looks forward to as well as the "old grads."

And this year's Homecoming had something new. The announcement of the GTC Hall of Fame touched a responsive chord in the hearts of the sports fans. And to make the Homecoming weekend perfect the Professors defeated Jacksonville University 98 to 92 in a thriller which required four over-times to determine the winner.

It was a fine weekend for GTC and Statesboro.

God's will

All Bulloch County joins Mr. and Mrs. Josh Smith in their grief at the death of their little daughter, Barbara June.

It was when Barbara June was only three years old that the citizens of Bulloch County opened their hearts and purses and raised funds to help send her to Johns Hopkins for her first operation.

And when the word went out recently that another operation was necessary members of the Farm Bureau in Georgia helped underwrite the expenses of the operation and contributed blood. And the hearts she won included members of the Maryland Farm Bureau and members of the Coast Guard in Baltimore who also contributed blood for the little 12-year-old girl from Bulloch County.

But all the skill of the doctors, all the love manifested by her family and all the devotion of her wonderful friends were not enough.

There is left only the deep satisfaction that it was God's will of which there is no understanding by the finite minds of men.

The cost of crime

This is National Crime Prevention Week. Does that mean anything to you? Or is it just another week?

It may be just another week but the facts revealed by Charles W. Brown, special agent in charge of the FBI's Savannah office make it a week to give us reason to shudder.

Nearly 2,800,000 major crimes were committed in the U. S. during 1957, and the 1958 figure not yet released, is expected to be even higher.

An average of 7,500 of these crimes—murders, manslaughters, robberies, burglaries, larcenies, assaults and auto thefts—were committed each day, or 320 each hour.

There was approximately one major crime for every 61 citizens. The 1957 total was more than twice the 1956 total of 1,685,000. In 1946 there was a major crime every 187 seconds. Ten years later there was one every 11.3 seconds.

The nation's crime bill for 1957 was $20,000,000. The figure for 1958 will probably exceed $22,000,000.

For every dollar given to churches, $12 went to defray the expenses of maintaining courts, police forces, prisons and federal law enforcement agencies as well as to pay for damages and losses resulting from crimes.

For every dollar spent on education in 1957, $1.29 went to cover the cost of lawlessness.

The average crime bill share per family was $467. And here's what should make us angry—the average share per person in the cost of crime was $119—that means you and us.

Think National Crime Prevention Week means something?

It had better or our crime problem is going to get worse.

Happy birthday!

This is the big week for Boy Scouts and Explorer Scouts, for it was forty-nine years ago that this great boy's organization was organized and came into being.

Statesboro Scouts, Cubs and Explorers are participating in the great celebration of their birthday. Events have been going on the first part of this week and will continue through this weekend.

We say "congratulations" to these boys on their birthday.

LISTEN, IVAN ...

This Week's Meditation

By The Rev. L. E. Houston Jr.

"YOU SHOULD NOT HAVE GROWN UP" The hands of the clock told me it was 1:45 Sunday afternoon, so I regretfully removed myself from the bed. It was time to leave the house and go to the First Baptist Church for tabulation of the community religious census. My Sunday afternoon rest period had amounted to only twenty minutes, and I wasn't the happiest man alive.

AS I DRESSED, I attempted to console my elder daughter, who was squirming under the restriction of nap-time. I finally said to her: "Deborah, Daddy wishes he could stay in bed for a two-hour nap." Her rapid-fire answer was: "Daddy, you should never have grown up!" To be perfectly honest, dear reader, the wisdom of children these days is downright disturbing. This is true, of course, because children have the uncanny insight and the forthrightness to see and describe a situation just as it is. Too often, adulthood has taught us the art of closing our eyes to truth.

CONSIDER this matter of growing up. There is much more involved in this process than mere physical development. With few exceptions, all of us arrive at physical maturity in a normal manner. However, in other areas of personality development, it is not quite so simple. When a person fails to develop in his emotional life, for instance, we call it emotional immaturity. It is this condition

Herman Talmadge Reports From Washington

THE FEDERAL BUDGET which President Eisenhower has proposed for the 1960 fiscal year is about as wishful as a five-year-old's letter to Santa Claus. It was presented to Congress as a balanced budget, but its substance is based on more "ifs" than dollars. It can be balanced only if the national economy continues its upward spiral, if federal revenue increase by $9.1 billion, if gasoline taxes and postal rates are raised by $1.4 billion and if the Democratic-controlled Congress should by some miracle adopt it virtually unchanged—contingencies which range in that order from the improbable to the inconceivable.

AS LAUDABLE as the President's declaration in support of a balanced budget may be, this proposed spending formula defeats his personal good intentions by failing to curb waste and correct inefficiency in the federal establishment, by proposing to economize at the expense of the farmer and the veteran and by advocating the imposition of new taxes on the already overburdened taxpayer.

CONGRESS hardly will be receptive to such studied indifference to the real needs of the nation. I know that I, for one, do not intend to vote for any tax increase whatsoever so long as the Executive Branch refuses to act decisively to deflate its bloated bureaucracy and continues to advocate an ever-increasing and never-ending foreign economic aid program to support the economies of 70-odd Communist Nations, like individuals, must live within their incomes or go bankrupt. The only difference is that it takes nations longer to reach that point because, unlike the individual, they can print their money. It certainly is evident that the United States is traveling rapidly down that road when the only balance which it can boast is that it now owns almost as much as it owes.

There is no excuse for printing press money and the one and only valid reason for deficit spending is the requirements of national defense. Otherwise the only sound and sensible fiscal policy for any country is to determine accurately and realistically what its income will be

The Editor's Uneasy Chair

YOU CAN DREAM, can't you?

While observing the Georgia Teachers College Homecoming parade last Saturday afternoon we overheard two men talking. One was young-to-middle-aged. The other was middle-aged, that is, he was on the shady side of fifty. The beautiful float on which "Miss GTC for 1959" was riding was passing by.

The young to middle-aged man: "Boy, she's a living doll!"

The middle-aged man: "She sure is, and I was born thirty years too soon."

FASHION NOTE for the men: The next new suit you buy may have a vest. We picked this little item out of the newspapers recently. It's been a long time since a vest was considered a part of your suit. Well, there was the Ivy League boys who wore fancy vests, but that was for color and not considered as part of their suit. But the trend is back to the vest. Made of the same material as the rest of the suit. That puts that old suit you own, with the vest, right back in style.

And while in this little business men's fashion, have you noticed that men's nightshirts are coming back. And Barney Averitt proves that derbies are coming back. Now we're looking for the detachable collar, suspenders, spats and walking sticks to come back.

OVER THE PROTESTS of thousands of Georgia citizens the Georgia Legislature has voted into oblivion one of the finest agencies of government ever created in this state. At the direction of new administration legislative leaders have carried through to passage the infamous House Bill 12 which will forever appear as a ghost hovering over any accomplishments which may be made by the Vandiver Administration. The Georgia House of Representatives in an astounding decision reversed itself completely from only one year ago when it adopted the Senate legislation creating the Georgia Recreation Commission. In January of 1958 the House had passed the bill with only two dissenting votes.

So completely did the lay leaders in our communities, interested in recreational growth, believe in the impossibility that any such action would be taken by the Legislature that many of them, vitally interested in the commission, failed to take any action to help save it.

PROFESSIONAL leaders in the recreation field were not advised by the Senate Watchdog Committee that the Commission itself completely from only one year ago when it adopted the Senate legislation creating the Georgia Recreation Commission. In January of 1958 the House had passed the bill with only two dissenting votes.

THE SENATE Watchdog committee made no investigation of the commission program and not a single member of the com-

NEXT TO WINNING one of those "paid-vacation-for-two with a thousand dollar wardrobe" contests is having a husband who has been invited to a meeting in Florida in February.

We confess that making arrangements before leaving because so tedious at times that we had almost rather stay at home. Yet, once we are on the road the irksome details become trivial.

A call had been made the first of the week to the preacher in the family to know if he still wanted his grandchild for a visit. Yes, of course, he was eagerly looking forward to her visit. In fact, he had cleaned up for her several days before. So, our first stop was the Manse a hundred miles across the state.

A SALUTE TO THE SEWELLS—In a recent issue of "The Spire," the monthly bulletin published by the Glenn Memorial Methodist Church in Atlanta, there is a fine tribute paid to Mr. and Mrs. Lee Barron Sewell.

We here in Bulloch County know Mrs. Sewell as "Mary Lou" (Lester) and Mr. Sewell as "Baron."

"No couple in Glenn are more willing and eager to serve, as sturdy pillars upon which to sturdier the goods works of the church," the bulletin says of the beloved couple, in a two-column story.

The Sewells moved to Atlanta in 1902. Barron began working with the RFC in its infancy. Since then he has worked with several U. S. agencies. He is now holding the responsible position of Credit and Finance Officer of the Southeastern Regional Office of the General Services Administration. For generations Barron's family have been Methodists. Mary Lou, reared a Presbyterian, joined her husband's denomination at marriage. For their first eight years in Atlanta they attended St. Mark's in 1908 when they moved to the town of Princeton. Mary Lou where they now live, they joined Glenn Memorial.

Barron has served on the Official Board almost his entire membership at Glenn and for a long time has been secretary of the Commission on Finance. Mary Lou has been a circle leader nearly every year since joining Glenn. She has served as a WSCS vice-president and held several couple's class offices.

The Sewells are frequently visitors to Statesboro and recognition of their worth to their church comes as no surprise to those who know and love them.

RECENTLY WE published the announcement of the birth of twins, a boy and a girl, to Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Dotson. We commented on the announcement saying that it was believed to be the second set of boy-girl twins to be born in Bulloch County since the birth of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. McDougall of Statesboro.

Now comes word that Bobby and Betty, twins of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Brown, were born in Bulloch County. They celebrated their birthday on February 3. Mrs. Brown is the former Miss Catherine Rowse, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Rowse. So the Dotson's twins make the third set of boy-girl twins since the McDougall twins since then—unless someone comes forth with another set.

on the "list" of the Watchdog Committee. Sometime last year the Macon Telegraph quoted this source as having said that the commission was just a bunch of foolishness and wouldn't last. Reported this source advising the Committee was the state auditor. Since the state auditor is the highest paid official in the state government, and this includes the Governor, and since he serves on some fourteen commissions and boards, it has been suggested that he give serious thought to the curtailment of his own salary which is more than $22,000 per year in the interest of economy. Certainly he must be the highest paid book examiner in the state, government or otherwise.

THERE is no bitterness involved in the decision to end the work of the commission, insofar as the members themselves are concerned. The feeling rather is one of despair in knowing that the fine work already undertaken has been destroyed.

The people in Wrens, in Fort Valley, in Sylvester, in College Park, in Hinesville, in Jesup, in Savannah Beach, in Springfield, and in a score of other communities are left holding the Plans have been made in these communities and help is being given by the commission staff. Now the work has been halted. It will be hard to tell them that no help is available.

Perhaps the legislative leaders who voted to kill the commission, in its cradle, will be able to give these communities the guidance which they seek. Let us hope that they will be able to do so.

We have been told confidentially that a source in the Capitol placed the Commission

WELL, AN UNMARRIED preacher, living alone, has his own ideas about what cleaning up is but at least there is a path. If this path were followed carefully there was little danger of stumbling. We whispered to the Grandmother "Are you sure you want to stay?" The gleam in her eye made us know that her fingers were already itching to start a spring cleaning. We had to warn her a friend, the doctor's orders. So we left her, and we might add that we discovered upon our return that she had a glorious visit with her first-born grandson.

WE CONTINUED our journey and enjoyed riding over a part of Georgia we seldom see. Abbeville, Sylvester, Ashburn, Moultrie and Thomasville were some of the towns we passed

XI SIGMA CHAPTER OF BETA SIGMA PHI Mrs. Lamar Trappnell was hostess to the Xi Sigma Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Monday evening, January 26, at her lovely home near the country club.

Lovely wax roses were used effectively in the decorations. The guests were served devil's food cake and coffee.

The vice president, Mrs. Velma Rose, presided at the business meeting. Plans were made for a Valentine social.

Mrs. Rose, also in charge of the program developed the topic: "Early Theater in America," in a most interesting manner.

TOWN AND COUNTRY GARDEN CLUB Mrs. Erastus Atkins and Mrs. Lawson Holloway were co-hostesses Tuesday, January 27, to the Town and Country Garden Club at Mrs. Atkins' lovely home. Seasonal decorations were used.

Mrs. Dan Lingo presided at the brief business session. The ladies were happy to have with them, Mrs. Percy Bland of Statesboro who made an inspiring and interesting talk on camellias. Details regarding when to plant, how to plant, and information regarding the kind of plants that are best adapted to the soil were heartily received, as busy fingers were making notes. The lecture was illustrated by movie slides. Mrs. Bland also pointed out the advantages of federating with the State Garden Club.

Mrs. E. K. Brown, president of the Pineleaf Garden Club was a very welcome guest. The hostesses served strawberry short cake, topped with whipped cream, coffee and nuts. Others attending were Mrs. Carl Nessmith, Mrs. Carlos Branson, Mrs. Homes Cason, Mrs. Cluise Smith, Mrs. Grady Spence, Mrs. Doris Cason, Mrs. Bub Lanier, Mrs. Sam Brannen and Mrs. L. J. Joyner.

Mrs. Eva Lee Neville left Sunday, February 8, to attend the Southern Traveler's Show in Atlanta. Mrs. A. L. Davis of Nevils is visiting her daughter, Mrs. C. P. Martin in Statesboro. Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Pickens Jr. and their little daughter, Mary Jane of Avondale Estates attended Homecoming at Georgia Teachers College last weekend. They visited Betty's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grover C. Brannen. On Sunday little Mary Jane was christened at the First Methodist Church. The silver Goblet which was used is a gift from her God-mother, Miss Bertha Freeman.

they were the same age. Tallahassee is the only part of Florida in which we feel we'd ever want to live. It is more like our native North Georgia with slight red, clay hills. We hit a time when the camellias were perfectly beautiful. We saw Kileam Gardens and felt like we were walking in paradise. We went to a Camellia show and saw a big house full of beautiful blossoms.

The meetings to which the husband had been invited were closed to wives and other hindrances so we enjoyed a tea given for the "disappointed" wives. It was fun to go and feel like an "unrushed lady of leisure."

WE COULDN'T forget altogether what we do at home so spend one day at the University School observing an other fifth grade at work. One can always learn from such a day, and it is also good to find that our own schools aren't so bad.

We drove away feeling a little sad because we see our friends too little but also feeling very warm inside because we have such good friends who actually act like they are happy we came.

The next meeting will be February 24 at the American Legion home.

MRS. GUDFREY, A RAINY DAY HOSTESS

Here's what one mother did on rainy day, Thursday, January 29.

Mrs. Edgar Gudfrey, on the corner of Tillman Street and Vista Circle, called in company for her son, Konrad, who is 19 months old. The oldest guest was three years old. Little tables and chairs were ready for them in the large kitchen, warm and cozy. Bliss marked their places. Luncheon consisted of a lemonade cocktail, a main dish, hot dogs, buns and baked beans with ice cream for dessert.

The children had kitchen privileges which included rumpling and cutting papers.

The luncheon guests were Nicky Strange, Pratt and Sky Lockwood, Grig and Janice Hodges, and Rebecca Houston.

MAGNOLIA GARDEN CLUB MEETS

The regular meeting of the Magnolia Garden Club was held on Thursday afternoon, February 5, at 3:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Huey McCormick on South Edgewood Avenue with Mrs. Bernon Gay as co-hostess.

The rooms were decorated with camellias and flowering quince. A beautiful arrangement of red camellias in a silver bowl in a valentine motif done by Mrs. Gay made a lovely centerpiece for the dining table.

Mrs. Lamar Hotchkiss, president, conducted a short business meeting. Mrs. J. D. Allen read the club prayer. Mrs. Pote Tankersley, chairman of the nominating committee presented the slate of officers for the ensuing club year.

Those submitted and duly selected were: president, Mrs. W. H. Woodcock; vice president, Mrs. Hoke Tankersley; recording secretary, Mrs. Bernon Gay; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Foy Wilson; treasurer, Mrs. Hoke Tankersley; and Mrs. Hoke Tankersley, project chairmen.

Others present were Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Carroll, Mr. and Mrs. Smith and Mrs. W. C. Mathews. Plans were made for the regular March meeting which will be a covered dish luncheon at the home of Mrs. Lonnie Young.

Representatives from the Magnolia Garden Club will attend the Executive Board meeting of Southeast Georgia, Associated Garden Clubs of Greenville, Ga., February 15.

Mrs. Norman Campbell, chairman for the Spring Flower Show, assigned each member specific duties for the show.

The guests were served chicken salad, crackers, brownies and coffee.

After refreshments, Mrs. Lane E. Irvin, son-in-law of Mrs. B. H. Ramsey Sr., who is one of the supervisors of the P.O.B.-G.M.C. Division of Atlanta, came down Friday night and brought two of his associates and hunted on the farms of Mr. Ramsey.

Mrs. E. N. Brown, president, called on Mrs. A. M. Brasswell Sr. for the club prayer. Mrs. Brasswell was heard from the cemetery committee. The work is continued by beautifying the entrance to the old part of East Side Cemetery.

Emphasis was placed on March as Garden Center month. It was announced that the work shop has been called off due to the illness of Bill Landrum.

Florie of Miller, who was to have been the instructor.

The state officers selected for the new club year was announced and accepted. They will be installed at the next meeting.

Mrs. Frank Olliff announced her committee chairman for the Flower Show which will be held April 22 at the High School gymnasium.

Those attending were Mrs. A. M. Anderson, Mrs. A. M. Brasswell Sr., Mrs. E. N. Brown, Mrs. D. L. Davis, Mrs. Inman Foy Sr., Mrs. H. E. French, Mrs. W. S. Hanner, Mrs. J. B. Swine growers who enter pigs in spring test contact Dr. McCormick

By RUY POWELL, County Agent

Attention all swine growers. Those of you who wish to enter pigs in the Spring test at the Georgia Swine Testing Station, Coastal Plain Experiment Station, Tifton, should contact Dr. W. C. McCormick at the station for nomination forms immediately.

Remember that nominations must be made within 10 days following farrowing.

Certain changes in the rules and regulations of the Swine Testing Station have been made.

Officers elected for 1959 were, president, Dr. James H. Sikes, Statesboro; president-elect, Dr. Thomas J. O'Connor, Superior; secretary and treasurer, Dr. Hugh Arndel, Statesboro.

Members of the Georgia Bala and-a-half Cotton Club for 1958, held their annual banquet, Thursday night, January 29, at the Mattie Lively School Cafeteria, 150 club members, parsons, leaders and friends attended this banquet, which was sponsored by the Bulloch County Home Demonstration Club.

The breakdown on production cost per acre was as follows: Land preparation, planting, hoeing, weeding, and cultivation, $12.00; Fertilizer, 85 pounds N at 6 cents, 88 pounds P at 7 cents, 111 pounds K at 6 cents, total $12.72; Pesticide, 10 fifteen-pound applications at 10 cents per pound, $15.00; picking, 2,380 pounds at $28.00 per 100 pounds seed cotton, $66.56; Ginning, $1.74 bales at $12.00 per bale, $20.88; land rent, $20.00, and interest on operating capital and miscellaneous costs, $8.00.

The 221 farms reporting on a total of 5,102.8 acres of cotton had an average net profit per acre of $158.43 from sales of both lint and seed. The average gross return was $330.00 per acre at an average total cost per pound of lint was 20.8 per pound.

The 221 members of the Bala and-a-half Cotton Club had an average lint yield of 870 pounds per acre. They used an average of 85 pounds nitrogen, 88 pounds of phosphorus and 111 pounds of potash. Ten applications of nitrogen were made.

Mr. Roy Powell, County Agent, recognized the guests and introduced the speaker, Mr. J. C. Richardson, District Agent. He talked with the history of 4-H Club work and the cooperation.

Awards were presented by Mr. Jones Peabody and Mrs. Gertrude M. Gear. The parents were asked to stand as each boy or girl received their award, as follows: Food Preparation—Achievement, Sue Belcher; Clothing, Helen Belcher; Achievement, Mary Alice Belcher; Food Preparation—Leadership, Carl Godbee.

Statesboro Rotarians got a good look at Bulloch County through the eyes of W. A. (Bill) Sutton, head of the Agricultural Extension Service, College of Agriculture at the University of Georgia in Athens, as he talked to them at their Monday noon meeting at Mrs. Bryant's Kitchen.

Mr. Sutton was the guest speaker at the club's annual Rural-Urban Day when members invited their farm friends to be their guests.

Mr. Sutton paid a high compliment to the farmers of this county when he said, "I should like to point out that when a man joins the ranks of outstanding farmers in Bulloch County he also becomes an outstanding farmer in Georgia and in the nation... for Bulloch County has long been recognized as one of the leading agricultural counties in the state and its top farmers rank with the best in the country."

He pointed out that Bulloch County farmers have 1,172 pounds per acre compared to the state average of 1,290 pounds. Bulloch's corn average was 27 1/2 bushels per acre compared to the state average of 26 bushels.

He reported that the county has 27 1/2 bushels per acre compared to the state average of 26 bushels.

He pointed out that the 1958 average was better than those of 1957.

Girl Scouts Home fund at $1000; needs $3000

Donations for the Girl Scout building project continued to pour into the organization this week.

At latest count the fund had reached the $1,000 mark.

The building, which will be located in the park area on land donated by Mrs. F. W. Darby, will be known as Darby House. It is estimated that construction will cost approximately $3,000.

Statesboro Moose Lodge members gave the fund a big boost this week with a check for one hundred dollars. Earlier the Edgewood Civic Club had earmarked one hundred dollars to help furnish the building.

Recreation Board Treasurer Osborne Banks, announced that private individuals had given some two hundred dollars to the building and that all persons interested in the scouting program are asked to help put the fund well over the top. Since no word of door campaign is being considered, Banks stated, the project will depend upon the voluntary help of those interested in the scouting program for its success.

Tom Martin to head Red Cross drive here

Josh S. Lanier, chairman of the Bulloch County chapter of the American Red Cross, announced this week the appointment of W. Tom Martin as chairman of the 1959 Red Cross Drive which begins March 1.
